We advise all who have weak eyes, or are near or far sighted, to procure spectacles with a pair of Mr. E. Sincere's spectacles. They will not only give you temporary relief, but sure to invigorate the vision to its former vigor.

GARIBALDI.—Judging from the increased demand from all parts of the country for that fan-favored and excellent smoking cigar—Garibaldi has become the favorite of all who indulge in smoking. J. D'Uro, on Main street, second door below the Louisville Hotel, is the place to go and get them. Mr. D'Uro also keeps all kinds of confectionaries, nuts, foreign fruits of every description, and every article usually kept in a wholesale confectionery. We cheerfully command him and his house to the trade, and we advise merchants and others to examine Mr. D'Uro's stock before purchasing elsewhere.

BRAUTIGAN'S GOODS FOR GENTLE-
MEN'S CLOTHING.—We invite attention to the card of Mr. Swan, merchant tailor, Masonic Temple, Fourth street. This gentleman has on hand a stock of the most beautiful French, English and American cloths, cassimoles and vestings, designed especially for the spring styles. The cutting and designing department of this celebrated establishment is under well known and artistic enter, and a guarantee to give entire satisfaction is awarded to each gentleman who patronizes the establishment. The public are invited to call and examine his stock of goods for coats, pants and waist, before making their selections. Fit, fashion, fabric and price warranted to give entire satisfaction.

Mr. C. C. Spencer's advertisement of real estate for sale, which takes place on Saturday afternoon next, April 28th, on the premises, embracing lots on Fifteenth street, Grayson and Seventeenth streets, all south of and not far from Grayson. Mr. Spencer requests us also to say that he will sell several other lots and a house and lot near the above property, on the same afternoon. The sale of all the above real estate is to be wholly without reserve as we are assured.

We are requested to note that there will be a meeting of the young chivalry of Oldham county, at Legrange, on Saturday, the 28th inst., for the purpose of organizing a dress military company. We trust the young men of Oldham will promptly respond to this call and report our progress.

We remind our readers that Mr. Spencer's large sale of second-hand furniture, takes place this morning, at his auction room. At 12 o'clock, a fine family carriage is to be sold, and in addition to which, we are requested to say, two saddle and harness horses, an open-top buggy, and a fine set of harness, will be sold on four months' credit. The horses and buggy is just the thing for collecting agents, who are about starting on their "pilgrimage of love and mercy."

We would advise all who are affected with weak eyes, or are near or far sighted, to call on Mr. E. Sincere, at his Optical Institute, under the National Hotel, and get immediate relief.

The Police Court was occupied yesterday with the following business: Anthony McDonald, Lewis Rowick and Frank McDaniel, drunkards; bail in $100 for two months; workhouse. Hannah Burns, drunkards; discharged. John Fritch, passing counterfeited money; discharged.

Burrell, slave of Ed. Crutchfield, disorderly conduct; ordered to receive twenty stripes.

John Lloyd, lunacy; ordered to be sent to the Hopkinsville jail. Chy vs George Vogt; judgment confessed and fined $5.

Same vs. A. Head; fined $5. Same vs. M. D. Levy (Hon. John J. Hayes sitting as Judge). Mr. Levy has had a cedar candy shop close to his house, occupying twenty inches of the sidewalk as provided in an ordinance. The Court doubted the right of the Council to grant such privileges. It was certainly an obstruction. The only question was whether proceedings should be instituted by present process or by indictment. The Court held the case under advisement.

HORN HOSPITAL.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising column that Dr. F. Ross has fitted up, near his office, a hospital, where he can take a sick or diseased horse and give him every attention.

The Doctor understands every disease known to the horse, and treats them with great success. Persons having sick horses will consult their own interests, as well as their horses, by immediately giving the Doctor a call. We have given him a trial, with one of the most dangerous diseases horses are subject to, and Dr. Ross cured him in the shortest possible time. His office is on Clark street, between Jefferson and Market.

An elderly lady residing on Seventh street, near Market, fell down a flight of steps, and injured herself seriously. She was for a time speechless.

The late frosts have done serious injury to the cotton and other crops in the vicinity of Memphis.

Our local conference of the Memphis Enclosed, A. H. Downer, Esq., has accepted the position of business manager of the New York Mercury.

THE SUNDAY DEMOCRAT.—We beg leave to remind our readers that the Sunday issue of the Democrat affords a rare and excellent opportunity to advertise to present their cards to the public.

The Police Commissioners yesterday entered suit against Wm. R. Ray, Chief of Police, for malfeasance in office, having appointed policemen without the sanction of the Commissioners.

Our species are lost—gone. Gone like the baseline of a fabric, of the vision, the headache after a sleep, the last rose of summer, or some other such suggestive and poetic ideas.

They were dear to our heart, those species, and necessary to our vision, and now that they are gone, we can see how ever got along without them. But we are ex-christians at this writing, and will reward the person returning them with our sincere thanks and one of our sweetest smiles.

By reference to the advertisement it will be seen that D. W. Clark has a new style of sewing machine for sale. This is one of the most complete miniature machines ever invented. It is bound to be popular with the ladies, it is such a dear, darling, dainty, & a machine.

It had remained in the hands of the ladies for some hours in this condition and was cold and apparently dead.

Being discovered was taken to the city hospital and at last accounts was not dead. It was a case of epilepsy, a rare thing in the vocabulary of medical practitioners.

RIVER NEWS.

FRIDAY MORNING — APRIL 27, 1860.

The weather continues cool—very cool for the season.

The river was receding yesterday, with about one-half its usual depth, and the water was about four feet lower than it was on the previous day.

The river at Princeton yesterday was falling, with about three inches water in the channel.

The river at Memphis after having been 34 feet for several days yesterday, has now fallen to 30 feet.

The tributaries of the Ohio, Mississippi, and other rivers have all fallen to 30 feet.

The river at Cincinnati yesterday was falling,

and is now about 30 feet deep.

The river at Louisville yesterday was falling, with about two inches.

The river at New Orleans yesterday was falling,

and is now about 28 feet deep.

BUSINESS AFFAIRS.

CHOICE DRY GOODS.—Guthrie & Bros. have on hand a fine assortment of Summer Dress Goods, which they are selling upon the most favorable terms. All those in search of Choice Goods, of the Latest Styles, are officially invited to examine their stock. Organdies, Silks, Barongs, Lace, Mantles, Parasols, Domestic. Fourth street.

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silver Ware, Spectacles and everything in the jewelry line at P. W. Ramsey's, on Third street, where you can get a bargain, if you will call.

"How Shall we Dress?"—An Important Question.—A fashionable woman's first question is almost every subject, is invariably, "How shall we dress?" And in solving that very important problem every other point is at once and entirely lost sight of. Like the masculine "What shall we take?", it is the alpha and omega of every conversation. Then, as this subject of dress has absorbed so much of the attention of our people, it is important to know where a gentleman can get an outfit that will give him character as a man of taste. J. M. Armstrong, on Main street, opposite the National, is recognized as the best authority for styles in this city. His stock of men's, youth's, and children's clothing, for the present season, is unusually handsome. Call and see him.

Doors, Sashes, Blinds, Boxes, Lumes and Shinings.—Messrs. Breedon & Bradley have on hand a large lot of doors, sashes, blinds, boxes, &c., at their warehous, on First street, between Main and the river, and they are prepared to execute all orders for woodwork necessary for the inside finish of frame or brick houses of every description, as heretofore. They invite special attention to the large stock of well-seasoned pine lumber and shingles at their yard on Walnut street, between Eastland and Floyd. They furnish bills of lading on application, and will accept orders in their line.

A Time when there is great fear that the stock of dry lumber, sash, doors, blinds, &c., will fall short, owing to the vast amount of improvements in Louisville, it will be interesting to the public to know that Alexander, Ellis & Co., have enlarged their factory and have now on hand several million of dry lumber. Call at their office on Main street, nearly opposite the Galt House, or at their factory on Faubus, above Preston street.

THREE.—Among the places worthy of the attention of the visitors to Louisville at the present time, is the great trunk manufacturer and emporium of J. H. McCleary, on the northeast corner of Fourth and Main streets. His large manufacture enables him to supply trunks, valises, bonnet and hat boxes, carpet bags, bureau trunks, etc., of the very best quality, at unprecedented low prices. All of Mr. McCleary's work is beautiful as well as durable goods. Give him a call.

Look to Your Interests.

The people are aware that D. O'Hare, No. 427 Main street, is the oldest, largest and most experienced manufacturer of trunks and similar articles in the city. They should avail themselves of the rare opportunities afforded by Mr. O'Hare. To country and city merchants he offers peculiar advantages in his wholesale department, while in the retail line he cannot be equaled. Who ever wants to travel, whether with a small carpet-bag or a smooth trunk, need go no further than to the Great Western Trunk Factory of Mr. O'Hare.
